Before the court is Defendant, Doris E. Nelson's Motion for an Order:

1. Authorizing her to attend her brother-in-law's wedding in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, and the reception which is scheduled to follow in Spokane Valley, Washington, on October 20, 2012;

2. Authorizing her to attend EWU's Family Weekend with her daughter, Meghan, on November 3, 4, and 5, 2012;

3. Authorizing her to attend and assist her daughter, Amanda, with the birth of her grandchild, who is expected in late November or early December; and

4. Setting a curfew for the pendency of this matter.

The court finds that good cause exists to GRANT the Defendant's unopposed Motion, parts 1 through 3. In addition, United States Probation Officer Carlson has discretion to permit Defendant to attend doctor appointments with her daughter, holiday family gatherings and feed her horses. Those requests also were unopposed. However, the request for curfew so the Defendant may be off house

1 arrest during the pendency of this matter is DENIED.

2 IT IS SO ORDERED.
